COUNCIL BRIEFS

- Looking for a fun outdoor activity for the kids? Our Connect with Nature series is filled with tips, tricks and safe activities that you can do with the kids in your local reserve or your backyard.

Go on a walk with Tom and learn tips and tricks on choosing the best path for you and how to watch birds and spot kangaroos, platypus and insects nearby.

All activities are child friendly. Watch the episodes for tips, tricks and safety suggestions at penrith.city/connectwithnature

The Connect with Nature Series is in partnership between Penrith and Camden Councils and produced by Hooked on Nature.

- From Tuesday, 2 to Friday, 12 March 2021, celebrate International Women's Day through a range of health and wellbeing activities, online workshops and more.

Council has joined with community organisations to put together the special program of events. To start the week, you're invited to an online event where you'll hear from inspirational local women on this year's theme, #ChooseToChallenge.

To find out more about local International Women's Day events, go to penrith.city/international-womens-day

- The annual Penrith City Council Mayoral Golf Charity Day will be held on Friday, 12 March 2021 at Penrith Golf Club.

Supporting The Haven-Nepean Women's Shelter, team registration and sponsorship opportunities are being called for on what is a great day on the course supporting a local charity.

All funds raised on the day will go to support the great work The Haven does in the community supporting women and their children who have fled from a domestic violence situation.

For team registration and sponsorship opportunities contact events@penrith.city or call 4732 8678.
