COUNCIL BRIEFS

- Who says getting older means slowing down? Council's Reimagine Ageing Festival invites you to get active, try something new and connect with your community in COVID-Safe ways. From Tuesday, 13 April 2021 to the end of the month, we've teamed up with local community organisations to create a program of FREE, fun and exciting workshops. Join a cooking class, a yoga session, brush up on your computer skills or learn more about staying healthy.

To out what's on offer go to penrith.city/ReimagineAgeing

- Have you been wanting to teach your children about sorting correctly with the 3-bin service but haven't known where to start? We've got it sorted with a special education guide designed specifically for young children.

The Binz Adventures is an activity and educational guide we've put together for you to complete as a family that includes easy-to-read stories explaining the important role each of the three bins play, some tips and tricks on how you can teach your children to sort correctly, and fun, cost-effective, waste-saving activities you can complete together. The activity and education guide is suitable for families, carers, childcare centres and classrooms. Find The Binz Adventures activity and education guide at penrith.city/binzadventures

- The community is encouraged to commemorate Anzac Day from the comfort of their homes this year, as the City's sub-Branches hold their Dawn Services at a reduced capacity to meet COVID-19 guidelines. With local ex-servicemen and women in a vulnerable age bracket, their health and safety is paramount.

To show their appreciation for the many residents who will rise early and pay their respects from their driveway, Penrith RSL sub-Branch will stream its Dawn Service at livestream.com/blive/penrithrslanzacservice while the St Marys RSL sub-Branch will go live on their Facebook page at facebook.com/stmaryssubbranch/ from 5am on Sunday, 25 April 2021. Penrith City Council will share both streams via its Facebook page at facebook.com/penrith.city.council/ Lest we forget.
